Unlocking the full potential of EIP Operational Groups

Meet the obligations of the CAP regulation (Article 126) for knowledge exchange and knowledge building

Ensure the project outputs of operational groups and other innovative projects are always easily accessible and findable at national and EU levels.

Speed up the sharing and uptake of project outputs from local to transnational.

Incorporate project outputs into knowledge networks and decision-making.

Take advantage of advances in automatic translation and AI-assisted smart search functions.

Are your operational groups' outputs accessible for the long term?

Not all national network websites are permanent, and OG project results risk being lost over time despite remaining valuable

The EU-FarmBook avoids this risk by facilitating the long-term storage and sharing of Operational Groups outputs with easy, user-friendly access.

It integrates cutting-edge technologies like Artificial Intelligence, SEO, and User Experience design to ensure smooth and intuitive interaction.

It aligns with familiar systems like the EIP-AGRI and AGROVOC databases, making it simple for users to find relevant content.

Is your operational group visible across Ireland and Europe?

Are you reaching farmers, foresters or advisors beyond your local or regional area with information about your OG and its outputs?

The EU-FarmBook offers the possibility of dedicated project pages that can make your OG and results more visible and accessible.

Project pages include a range of useful features, including project details, uploads, events, news and discussion boards. Monitor how and where project outputs are accessed and used.

The EU-FarmBook can serve as a central hub for facilitating networking and collaboration among the full range of Eu-funded project types, creating new opportunities for your OG.

KEY FEATURES

DEDICATED PROJECT PAGES

Research & innovation projects and their project results become more visible and accessible at EU level.

Reduces the need for individual websites, saving costs and improving knowledge dissemination.

Includes: project details and uploads, description of partners, events, news and a discussion board.

The EU-FarmBook can serve as a central hub facilitating networking and transnational collaboration amongst the full range of EU-funded project types.

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the 'Inno4Grass' project page. The page features a dark navigation bar with the site logo and menu items: 'EU-FarmBook', 'Projects', 'Farm Assistant', 'About', and 'Support'. A search icon and language dropdown (set to 'EN') are also present. Below the navigation is a 'Back to [previous page]' link. The main content area has a background image of tall grass. A circular logo for 'Inno4Grass' is positioned in the top right. The project title 'Inno4Grass' is prominently displayed, followed by the subtitle 'Shared Innovation Space for Sustainable Productivity of Grasslands in Europe'. Key statistics are shown: 125 Project views, 83 Contributions, 284 Cont. likes, and 13 Project followers. An 'About project' section provides a detailed description of the project's goals and participants. A sidebar on the right lists project details: 'PROJECT COORDINATOR: Gruenlandzentrum Niedersachsen/ Bremen E.V.', 'GRANT ID: 689687', 'START DATE: 01 Jan 2017', 'END DATE: 31 Dec 2019', 'CORDIS DATABASE: CORDIS', and 'PROJECT WEBSITE: inno4grass.eu'. A 'Follow project' button is located at the bottom right of the sidebar. Below the project details, there are tabs for 'Contributions', 'Project details', 'Partners', 'News', 'Events', and 'Discussion board'. The 'Discussion board' tab is active, showing a 'Discussion (4)' section with a '+ Start new discussion' link. The first discussion post is titled 'Invasive Species Threats in Local Grasslands' and is dated '21 Sep 2024'. The post content includes a description of the problem and a list of questions seeking advice on removal methods and restoration practices.

KEY FEATURES

ADVANCED ANALYTICS DASHBOARD

In addition, comprehensive data tracking allows the monitoring of how and where project outputs are accessed and used.

Detailed insights on views, downloads, and engagement activities on the project page help to assess impact and refine dissemination strategies.

The screenshot shows the 'Support' page of the EU-FarmBook platform. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'EU-FarmBook', 'Projects', 'Farm Assistant', 'About', and 'Support' links, along with 'Login' and 'Register' buttons. Below the navigation bar, the page title 'Support' is displayed in a large font. A link for contributors is provided: 'Are you a contributor? Go to contributors support →'. The main content area is titled 'FAQ' and includes a sub-header 'Find answers for frequently asked questions below'. A left-hand sidebar lists categories: 'Using the EU-FarmBook Platform', 'Accessing the content', 'Uploading content', 'Security and privacy', and 'Managing account settings'. The main content area contains several FAQ items, each with a question and a brief answer. The questions are: 'Can I log in or register to the platform using my Google or Facebook account?', 'How do I register on the platform?', 'Whats the different between advisor and researcher account?', 'Can I publish the content as an advisor?', 'How can I become a contributor to the platform?', 'What is a contribution?', and 'How can I add new project'. At the bottom of the FAQ section, there is a box for 'Answer not found?' with a 'Contact us >' link.

The screenshot shows the 'How to...' section of the EU-FarmBook platform. It features a heading 'How to...' and a sub-heading 'Not sure how to work on the EU-FarmBook platform? Have a look at our tutorial video's and try again!'. Below this, there are two links: '→ Register to the platform' and 'Login to the platform'. To the right of the text, there is a video player showing a laptop displaying the EU-FarmBook website.

SUPPORT CENTRE

Support is available to clarify doubts and guide users in accessing the platform.

Contributors receive support in the upload process and connection to national/sectoral ambassadors.

Guidelines help create high-quality practice-oriented materials tailored to agricultural and forestry user communities.
