How long we retain your data

In keeping with the data protection principle of storage limitation we will only retain your data for as long as is necessary. For the purposes described in this Privacy Statement we will store your data for the duration of the project [INSERT Project duration] years in accordance with our data management plan.

Your rights under data protection law

You have the following rights over the way we process your personal data. For further information please contact [Project Manager]

Right of Access

You have the right to request a copy of the personal data which is processed by the [Insert Project Name] and to exercise that right easily and at reasonable intervals.

Consent

You may withdraw your consent to the [Insert Project Name] processing your personal data at any time, when consent is the legal basis for the processing. To withdraw your consent, we require you to advise the [Project Name] in writing.

Rectification

You have the right to have inaccuracies in personal data that we hold about you rectified.

Erasure

You have the right to have your personal data deleted where we no longer have any justification for retaining it, subject to exemptions such as the use of pseudonymised or anonymised data for scientific research purposes.

Object

You have the right to object to processing your personal data if:

- We have processed your data based on a legitimate interest or for the exercise of the public tasks of the project if you believe the processing to be disproportionate or unfair to you.
- The personal data was processed for the purposes of direct marketing or profiling related to direct marketing.

- We have processed the personal data for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

Restriction

You have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data if:

- You are contesting the accuracy of the personal data.
- The personal data was processed unlawfully.
- You need to prevent the erasure of the personal data in order to comply with legal obligations.
- You have objected to the processing of the personal data and wish to restrict the processing until a legal basis for continued processing has been verified.

Portability

Where it is technically feasible you have the right to have a readily accessible machine-readable copy of your data transferred or moved to another data controller where we are processing your data based on your consent and if that processing is carried out by automated means.
